Carpenter

Privately, after John the Noun.(475)

This monk drew him apart, out of the kirk,

And said: "I have not seen him here at Location

Since Saturday; I think well that he went

For timber, that the abbot has him sent;

For he is wont for timber thus to go,(480)

Remaining at the grange a day or so;

Or else he's surely at his house today;

But which it is I cannot truly say."
