The Honeymoon

Slava and Ilona were finally married! For their honeymoon they went to Place. It was their favorite place in the whole Noun. Once they arrived on their dream honeymoon, they went straight to the Noun and Verb - Past Tense. While they were at the Place they decided to rent Noun. They were having so much fun, they couldn't stop Verb - Present ends in ING. After being at the Place all day, they decided to make reservations for a Adjective dinner. They order Adjective Noun and Adjective Noun. It was so Adjective that they had to thank the chef. The chef was so pleased, he made a special Noun for them. After dinner they went for a Adjective stroll on the beach. Looking at the Noun, Slava said to Ilona, " Nickname, you are so Adjective, I'm so Emotion I got to spend the rest of our Adjective life together."
