

Stress

1. Proper Noun
2. Noun
3. Pronoun
4. Adverb
5. Adverb
6. Verb - Past Tense

Stress

_____ Proper Noun is the president of the _____ Noun. He is stressed out almost everyday. He was a great _____ Pronoun before he became _____ Adverb but now that he is _____ Adverb _____ Verb - Past sometimes stutters during his speeches. He also has an increase in blood pressure and heart rate as well as his breathing rate and he is getting rashes. He has also had a decrease in eating and is not hungry and he is getting much more fevers. His immune system has been lowered and he is shaking. Faraz is also confused or disoriented at times.

_____ Tense