

Those three words.

1. You

Those three words.

I see you and you see me

We are in class together

And we talk all the time its awesome.

I just don't have the strength to tell you that

I love you

I want to but i can't.

I am afraid that

You won't love me.

Well you probably won't but its worth a try to say it but i just can't get those three words off my lips

i just wish you knew how much

I LOVE YOU!
