The New Teacher

Once there was a new teacher that started in the preschool department. On her first day she came in very excited and ready to tackle the day! She was so excited to meet all the sweet and precious kiddos. Nothing could have prepared her for what happened her first day. How did it start so sweet and happy but then end with her wanting to run away _____Verb - Present Tense_____! Little _____Proper Noun_____ had had an accident and was _____Verb - Present Tense_____ with it. Sue _____Verb - Past Tense_____ all the _____Noun_____ from the bottles and all the _____Noun_____ out on the _____Noun_____. Katie some how found the teacher _____Noun - Plural_____ and decided to _____Verb_____ her _____Noun_____. Max bit _____Number_____ other children and two parents got upset at her because their child got _____Adjective_____. She knew she had a job to do and wanted so badly to do her best, but what can she do? She prayed for _____Noun_____ and _____Noun_____ to do her best and God gave her the comfort she needed to continue. Each day seemed to have it's own course of problems, however it got easier. By the end of the year she had grown quite fond of her little _____Noun_____ _____Noun_____ and didn't even realize how much they meant to her until it was time for them to move on to the next _____Noun_____. At that moment she realized that even though it started out rocky, God used that to help mold her and used the difficulties to help her learn and in the end God helped her understand the impact she had on the kids, but also the impact they had on her! God never makes mistakes in who he chooses to teach our children from the littlest to the biggest.
