Down town

One sunny           Noun           of summer           Proper Noun           woke up at 9:30 am and got dressed. Than he remembered that he was going to meet up with his friends and hang down town somewhere around 12:00. first he took a           Noun           then ate breakfast. Than he got his shoes on and it was about 11:00 by the time he was finished.

He got his longboard and rode the 4           Noun           downtown. He and his friends           Proper Noun          ,           Proper Noun           and           Proper Noun           all hung out for a couple           Noun - Plural           down town. Than it got boring so           Adverb           had an idea of           Verb - Present Tense           a small fire in a can he found.

First They all found some           Coordinating conjunction           and           Verb - Past Tense           had some lighter fluid. So then they put the sticks in the bucket then we sprayed the sticks with lighter fluid.           Proper Noun           had his           Noun           so he lighted it. And it was a big           Noun           at first but it died down later.           Proper Noun           had found some hot dogs at whole foods so they roasted them on a           Noun          . After this everyone had to leave so           Proper Noun           rode home on his longboard.
