Uganda Be Kidding Me

I _____
Verb - Past Tense up three hours later and called down to the spa to get a _____
Noun and _____
Noun. What I really wanted was a _____
Noun, but I was too embarrassed to ask for that directly. As I got on the elevator, I started to feel _____
Adjective. I barely made it to the _____
Noun, and in my delirium, I thought the _____
Repeat Noun would be the equivalent of a _____
Noun and could aid in curing whatever leprosy I had caught. Once on the table I drifted in and out of consciousness until a _____
Adjective man wearing a _____
Noun woke me up with _____
Noun - Plural after I had fallen off the table and onto the floor.

"You have a very bad _____
Noun."

Is there such a thing as a good _____
Noun? People annoy me when they qualify a _____
Noun as being bad.

Isn't that kind of implied when you get the cold in the first place? It's the same thing as calling someone a creepy _____
Noun. What _____
Noun isn't creepy? As if anyone's ever said, You know that really well-rounded _____
Noun with the good _____
Noun and _____
Adjective personality? Well, he's coming over for _____
Noun.
