

Story of her Life: Charlotte E. Ray

1. First Name Of A Person
2. Year
3. College
4. College
5. College
6. Verb - Base Form
7. Event
8. Noun
9. Noun
10. Award
11. Award
12. Award
13. Award

Story of her Life: Charlotte E. Ray

First Name of a Person E. Ray was born in the Year to a Reverend and his wife. She was the first African American lawyer ever, and also she was a woman. She was only the third woman of any race to go through College College College and then Verb - Base Form. She started practicing law in her own office in 1872, after she Event. Though she only practiced law for a few years, Charlotte Ray demonstrated that African American women could excel in the field of law, and her achievements helped to inspire others. Since 1989, the Greater Washington Area Chapter of the Women Lawyers Division of the National Bar Association annually recognizes a local outstanding Noun Noun female lawyer with the Award Award Award Award.