Paul Bunyan's first fishing trip

Paul Bunyan loves to fish, but his first fishing trip was Adjective. He was fishing in Lake First Name of a Person when suddenly, he caught a Animal. The Animal was Verb - Present ends in ING so much they both fell into the lake. They almost drowned until a Noun was friendly enough to Verb - Base Form them back to the surface. Paul took him to his home, where he fed him Food and Food. Paul felt appreciated and finally found a Noun - Plural for life. But they got dragged apart by a dramatic Noun.
