Spying on the Winchesters

Hello. I am a private investigator and I am here to tell you about an amazing things I just found out.

I have been tracking the Winchester brothers since their infancy. Specifically, Dean and Sam are _____ Number _____ years apart. I have been watching them since Dean was just a baby _____ Noun _____, about _____ Number _____ years old.

Something I noticed about Dean is he always had a dream of being a _____ Job Title _____ since he was a kid. This was before his mother died because of _____ Cause of Death _____. After that horrible incident, he wanted to be a _____ Noun _____. His little brother Sam, or " _____ Nickname _____ " as Dean fondly calls him, had plans of being something much more prestigious: a _____ Job Title _____.

Dean Winchester is basically Sam's _____ Noun _____. In other words, a guardian. Their somewhat absent father would just give Dean orders, like " _____ Command _____, Dean" and "Remember, Dean, _____ Command _____." The boy would obey immediately.

Oh shhhh wait I think I hear something. It sounds like a _____ Noun _____. I know because it makes a _____ Sound _____ sound. That means it must be Sam. Shh! Oh wait, here he comes....yep it's Sam, of course. I can see his _____ Part of Body _____ now because it's so large.

Anyways, this means Dean is close behind. Oh I can hear the _____ Sound now....and of course Dean's favorite phrase " _____ Phrase ."

I think they left the room, most likely to _____ Verb - Base Form .

So anyways, I found a letter from Dean Winchester when he was a child. It was addressed to their father, but never mailed.

"Dear _____ Nickname ,

I know it's my job to look out for Sammy. I get that. I just feel like this Christmas we should get him a _____ Noun and _____ Verb - Base Form all night. Last year, Sam _____ Verb - Past Tense and I couldn't take it anymore. I need him to be happy, ok dad? So please _____ Verb - Base Form over here and give him a very special _____ Noun before next _____ Holiday .

Love, your _____ Noun , Dean"

I don't know why it's relevant, but it's a bit heartwarming, no?

Wait

I think I hear a very important conversation right now:

Dean: * Adverb * Exclamation, SAMMY!

Sam: Okay, okay. So get this. Exclamation.

Dean: Wait. What? Read that again. It doesn't sound like a case.

Sam: Okay, fine. Looks like we've got a Noun, three victims. Each died by Verb - Present ends in ING too hard.

Dean: Hm. Well a Noun could cause that. Maybe this is a job for First Name of a Person.

Sam: If only. But each victim had a Noun on their Part of Body and was Verb - Past Tense until they died.

Dean: * Adverb * Exclamation

Sam: I really agree, Dean. Unfortunately, Exclamation. You understand?

Dean: *begins to _____
Verb - Base Form _____* Sam.....exhales _____
Exclamation _____.

Sam: EXCELLENT! So you'll _____ Verb - Base Form _____ with me?

Dean: _____
Exclamation _____.

Sam: Wait, I don't know how I missed this. opens _____ Noun _____ Okay it says here each victim was

Verb - Present ends in ING _____ the same _____
Noun _____. Turns to Dean _____
Exclamation _____

Dean: *checking _____
Part of Body _____ in mirror* Uh huh.

Sam: Also did you download _____
Noun _____ on my laptop?

Dean: I don't know, did you _____
Verb - Base Form _____ on my bed?

Sam:maybe. But that's irrelevant. Answer my question? begins to _____ Verb - Base Form _____, which has the power to shut down the universe

Dean: Ok, fine, I did it, but I heard something weird about you Sammy. * _____
Verb - Present ends in S _____*

Sam: What's that? stares at a Noun longingly

Dean: I hear you Verb - Base Form and Verb - Base Form and Verb - Base Form all afternoon. Is that why I hear Sound Plural all night?

Sam: Um. Dean. I don't want to talk about this. *leaves on a Noun *

Ah children do you see how important this is? I can hardly contain how much this reflects the daily tragedy of the Winchesters. Without them, the world would be a Noun.

Dean: * Verb - Present ends in S * HEY. WHO ARE YOU? Exclamation

Sam: *backs Dean up by Verb - Present ends in ING Adverb * face becomes suddenly serious Phrase.

Looks like I've been discovered. I should leave now before they do what they usually do, which is Verb - Base Form my beautiful Noun.
