Mikhail's Adventure

Once upon a time Mikhail was watching _____ Noun - Plural fly outside his window when he saw something _____ Adjective in the neighbor's lawn.

"What is that _____ Adjective thing I see?" Mikhail gazed at the object with narrowed eyes.

To his great surprise, the unknown object began to walk toward him. Mikhail gasped. This reminded him vaguely of his terrorist days.

"I shall have to call my friend Harry," Mikhail said _____ Adverb.

However, Harry was nowhere to be found. The object was still approaching! Mikhail had a _____ Adjective feeling in the pit of his puppet stomach.

As the object came closer, Mikhail sprang into action. Using his _____ Adjective stumps he grabbed a nearby weapon and began to slink out of the front door _____ Adverb. When he reached the front lawn, he realized that the object was gone!

"What a _____ Adjective situation I have been led into," Mikhail remarked _____ Adverb.

He chuckled _____ Adverb. Whatever the object had been was surely scared away now by Mikhail's _____ Adjective physique and _____ Adjective features. Mikhail prepared to go back indoors. He grasped his weapon between his _____ Adjective stumps and marched on his _____ Adjective legs toward the front door. It was locked!

"What _____ Noun is this!" Mikhail began to feel _____ Emotion.

Mikhail beat upon the door with his _____ Adjective leg. To no avail. Mikhail was trapped in the _____ Adjective wilderness that is suburbia.

Mikhail began to Verb - Base Form. He would never be free of Noun. He missed Noun;

he missed his Noun. Most of all, he missed the pale blue blanket his mother swaddled him in until his eyelids would droop with sleep.

Before Mikhail could even raise his head, however, Harry swooped in with a giant butterfly net and caught the Adjective puppet.

Mikhail was the victim of a Adjective prank. How Adjective!

The end.
