Happy Retirement, Papa!

Our Papa is the _____ Adjective Papa in the whole wide _____ Noun! He has _____ Verb - Past Tense for a really long time at the _____ Noun Center. When he is working he has to deal with a lot of crazy people that call, and the crazy people that he supervises too. Sometimes we even get to go to work with Papa and listen to the _____ Adjective people that call _____ Noun.

When we were all _____ Adjective kids, Papa would take turns _____ Verb - Present ends in ING us while our _____ Noun were working. He would take us to the park, _____ Verb - Present ends in ING, and sometimes the _____ Noun Diner or _____ Noun to eat. He would even take us to Nursery School and pick us up when school was over. A _____ Adjective thing about Papa is that our daddies always wanted a pool when they were younger, but they never got a pool. Once Papa had us grandkids, he decided to get us a pool! He likes to go to all of our games, and school and dance recitals. He even watches _____ Adjective shows like The Little Couple and Say Yes to The Dress with Amelia because he knows it makes _____ Noun so happy.

Even though Papa could have worked any shift he wanted at 911, he worked 3-11 pm so he could help out with _____ Verb - Present ends in ING the grandkids to where they needed to be. Also we think he wanted to work this shift so he could still go to _____ Noun, _____ Noun, _____ Noun and Bass pro during the day.

Of all the papas in the whole wide world, our PAPA is the _____ Adjective there is! We love him so very much and can't wait to share his retirement (and pension) with him!!!
