

Photography in New York

1. Proper Noun
2. Noun - Plural
3. Noun - Plural
4. Proper Noun
5. Noun
6. Noun
7. Noun
8. Proper Noun
9. Noun
10. Adjective
11. Noun
12. Noun
13. Noun
14. Noun
15. Noun

Photography in New York

The buildings in _____ Proper Noun have been photographed many times. It's hard to get a unique shot of Times Square, so when I go there, I photograph _____ Noun - Plural. When I go there I see tourists, street musicians, office workers, and sometimes _____ Noun - Plural. There are also many crowds who come to see TV shows like _____ Proper Noun being filmed. If you want to take a good photo, look for a crowd and snap the _____ Noun.

When I ride the _____ Noun, I take pictures of the passengers. I love taking pictures of street musicians and _____ Noun who play on the subway train. The best place to see a variety of street performers and artists is at _____ Proper Noun Station. When you take a picture of a performer, always tip them a _____ Noun before shooting.

The _____ Adjective _____ Noun that you can see on the streets of New York are great for shooting pictures. When you ride the _____ Noun, you can be up high where it is easier to shoot pictures. When the weather is good, you can go on the second deck of the _____ Noun. When the weather is bad, the _____ Noun has an enclosed top. You will not get wet or cold. A full day pass is $ _____ Noun.