Turning 30

1 m 30 years old r	now. I think I'm supposed to Adverb or something, but I'm pretty damn
Adjective	about 30.
The truth is this:	My 20s wereto me. Ito me. in three different Noun - Plural	, managed to up a or two along the journey, and Verb - Past Tense	a mix of Noun - Plural that ranged from Adjective to verb (to steal some slang from	the younger generation). Most important of all, I that the daily Noun re	ally isn't a dramatic and pull between Adjective and Adjective, but instead is ofte	en really nothing more thanverb - Present Tense a little vs.
Verb - Present Ten	nothing at all. So I've like hell to avoid Verb - Present Tense
nothing and yes, l	I've made some along the way.
I think my 30s wi	ll look even more I'm with have Noun	in the years to come who will me the meaning of Noun Noun	Noun in ways I never knew existed. And I think, most important of all, I still Noun On	a dearly to that Adjective Noun that leads me beyond my own Noun and Noun - Plur	. Simply put, I'm still enough to believe the world is Adjective to craft,	, and To those that stand on the edge of a new decade of life,

whatever your a	age, I hope the takeaway is: Be _	Adjective	_,	Noun	, avoid doing	Noun	, do
Adjective	_ where you can, and most of all	, make it	Verb
