

Construction

1. Adjective
2. Adjective
3. Verb - Present Tense
4. Adjective
5. Noun
6. Noun
7. Noun

Construction

Visiting a construction site can be Adjective. There is all the Adjective equipment and Verb - Present Tense the progress. It is also Adjective to use your imagination to try to visualize the finished Noun. One has to appreciate all the hours of Noun that happens before any dirt is moved. It takes a long time to get to the Noun where you can actually see the progress happening. We should celebrate our success!