

Assimilation Policy

1. Adverb
2. Adjective
3. Noun
4. Verb - Past Participle

Assimilation Policy

A government policy begun in the 1930s and reinforced in the 1950s _____ Adverb by Aboriginal people were expected to leave their _____ Adjective culture behind and live like white Australians. An example of assimilation is the removal of half _____ Noun children from their families in order to train for living and working for the White society. These children became _____ Verb - Past Participle as the 'stolen generation.'