Assimilation Policy

1.	Adverb
2.	Adjective
3.	Noun
4	Verb - Past Participle

Assimilation Policy

A government policy begun in the 1930s and reinforced in the 1950s by Aboriginal people were expected to leave their culture behind and live like white Australians. An example of assimilation is the removal of half children from their families in order to train for living and working for the White society. These children became verb - Past Participle as the 'stolen generation.'

©2025 WordBlanks.com  $\cdot$  All Rights Reserved.