Colors of the Wind

You think I'm an ignorant savage

And you've been so many places

I guess it must be so

But still I cannot see

If the savage one is me

How can there be so much that you don't know?

You don't know ...

You think you own whatever _____ Noun _____ you land on

The Earth is just a _____ Adjective _____ thing you can claim

But I know every _____ Noun _____ and _____ Noun _____ and _____ Noun _____

Has a life, has a spirit, has a _____ Noun _____

You think the only _____ Noun - Plural _____ who are _____ Noun - Plural _____

Are the people who look and think like you

But if you _____ Verb - Base Form _____ the footsteps of a _____ Noun _____

You'll _____ Verb - Base Form _____ things you never knew you never knew

Have

you ever heard the _____ Animal _____ cry to the blue corn moon

Or asked the _____ Verb - Present ends in ING _____ _____ Animal _____ why he _____ Verb - Past Tense _____?

Can you sing with all the voices of the mountains?

Can you _____ Verb - Base Form _____ with all the colors of the _____ Noun _____?

Can you _____ Verb - Base Form _____ with all the colors of the _____ Noun _____?

Come run the hidden pine trails of the forest

Come taste the sunsweet berries of the Earth

Come roll in all the riches all around you

And for once, never wonder what they're worth

The rainstorm and the river are my brothers

The heron and the otter are my friends

And we are all connected to each other

In a circle, in a hoop that never ends

How high will the sycamore grow?

If you cut it down, then you'll never know

And you'll never hear the wolf cry to the blue corn moon

For whether we are white or copper skinned

We need to sing with all the voices of the mountains

We need to paint with all the colors of the wind

You can own the Earth and still

All you'll own is Earth until

You can paint with all the colors of the wind
