Goodbyes with stuff and things

I've had almost Number great years here in the call centers and it has gone by very Adverb. I told myself from the start, "Self, this position will just be a jumping off point to something else." I just didn't know what the something else was. I remember in a huddle a few times, Ruthie Pants told me I should be an Noun and I laughed and said, Adjective Noun!' It was never my intention to ever be an Noun. However, the more I kept looking at what the next step should be the more the Noun job aligned with that I was looking for. So, I guess I should have just Verb - Past Tense to Ruthie Pants from the beginning.

I will miss seeing all of you on a Noun basis. I really have loved my time at NCDG. I've learned a lot, personally and professionally and I could not ask for more than that. It isn't often you have a job you Verb - Non 3rd Person Singular Present Adverb almost everyday.

I hope to see you tonight so we can toast to great memories.
