My Life

My life is pretty Adjective. In Year when I had just turned Number my mother left me standing next to a Noun one rainy afternoon, she gave me her Noun and told me to Verb. She never came back, I cried for Time frame - six days two years etc. I wandered into the Place outside - park or baseball field etc and was pretty much raised by Animal (plural) until I was Number when I met a Adjective boy named First Name of a Person who wanted to Verb me. His family adopted me, I had Number new brothers and Number sisters who all loved me, I felt Adjective. My new dad was a Occupation by day and a Occupation by night, so we had a lot of money. He bought me my first Noun. My mom was a pre-school Verb ending in ER, she was so Adjective and loved Noun - Plural. I later graduated and went to Saint Adjective University to study Noun - Plural, that year my dad lost his Part of body in a Transportation accident and later died while Verb ending in ING. It was a horrible time for me. In Year I wanted to find my real mother again but discovered she had jumped off a Noun. I suddenly felt Adjective. I don't remember much, but I see her Verb ending in ING in my dreams every night. I also remember she would always tell me I was Adjective, she would then pat me on the Part of body and Verb. At least I have that to hang on to! My life wasn't Adjective growing up but at least I had a chance, a chance to Verb.
