First Day in Mrs. Weiss's Class

Today was the first day of school. I was a little Adjective - Feeling because I'd heard some Adjective rumors about our new 7th grade English teacher.

Don't get me wrong - some kids thought that Mrs. Weiss was Adjective, but there were many who thought she was the Adjective - Ends in EST teacher they'd ever met.

Some kids who had her as a substitute last year told us how she would Verb Adverb to the front of the classroom and Verb Adverb to get the class's attention. When a student got out of line you could count on Mrs. Weiss to Verb, then Verb Adverb. But most of the time, Mrs. Weiss was very Adjective.

So you see, many of us were a little Adjective - Feeling when we first entered the Adjective classroom.

The room was decorated with Adjective Noun - Plural and Adjective Noun - Plural.

The desks were arranged in a Geometric Shape. There was even a Noun hanging from the ceiling.

But what I noticed first was what the Adjective teacher was wearing. I don't know about the other kids, but I have never seen a teacher wearing pants that shade of Color. The outfit looked like something off of _____ Movie or TV Show _____.

Some of us weren't sure whether to _____ Verb _____ or _____ Verb _____, but we were _____ Adjective _____ and she didn't seem to notice our suppressed _____ Noun - Feeling _____.

Whatever they say, one thing is for certain : this is going to be a(n) _____ Adjective _____ year in Mrs. Weiss' class !
