The awesome day at the pool

It was a regular Adjective day when the greatest coach for swimming on earth entered MY Noun. You could have already thought how excited I was when I saw him. I went CRAZY!!! I started to ask him, " Hey Mr. Awesome, Adverb are you at my Noun?" He replied, " I heard that this is the best Noun pool in the whole world, so I came over to Verb a look."

Pronoun went Adverb more crazy that I brought like a hundred snacks for him to eat. After he was done, I asked him if he could teach me how to Verb Preposition or subordinating conjunction I was HORIBLE at it, and guess what he said, " YES!!!!" I went mad that moment. Actually I went so mad that I FAINTED. When I woke up, I was Preposition or subordinating conjunction my bed. That very moment, I ran as fast as I could and reached at the pool. Mr. Awesome was Adverb there! Preposition or subordinating conjunction that day on he gave Pronoun such good classes, such GREAT classes, that I learned how to swim like a PRO in 5 DAYS. Can you believe that? I just loved that summer so much that I wrote a story about it and that story is what you just finished reading.
