Recovery

I woke up this morning and the first thing I did was           Noun           . And I cant wake up without           Noun           .

An old friend called and asked if I wanted to hang out and           Noun           . I told them I cant live like that today

I no longer enjoy           Noun - Plural           . I have decided to live a           Adjective           and           Adjective           life and only associate with people who go to           Event           and           Event           . Since I felt tempted to use I called my Noun           who is also           Adjective           and discussed how to avoid           Noun - Plural           . I felt much better after our           Noun           .
