My Favorite Town

Let me tell you about my favorite place. It is Verb - Past Participle beccaville. Everyone there always dresses in pink, and all the cars and the monkeys are pink, too.

one direction came to do a concert in beccaville Coordinating conjunction, and the band liked it so much they never left. Now every monday night, all the people who live in beccaville put on their ran, pink dresses and walk their monkeys to the town square. Then they sit on the grass, listen to one direction play rap MUSIC, and eat cookies.

No one has to go to school in beccaville unless they want to. Of course, everybody wants to because cody simpson and the rock are two of the teachers. cody simpson teaches math and the rock teaches dancing.

One day cody simpson said to the rock, "Maybe we should Determiner the students on a field trip." "

That's a walk idea, cody simpson," said the rock. "Let's take them to the most fun place we can think of." "But that would be beccaville," said cody simpson. "You're right!" the rock exclaimed. "Call Preposition or subordinating conjunction the field trip! We're already here!"
