The Magic Penguin

What a(n) Verb day. Today, I was just crusin along in my Mode of transportation and I saw the Adjective thing. There was a Adjective Animal on the side of the road!!! I walked up to my friend First name and said that I saw a Adjective Animal but she called me Adjective but I knew she loved me anyways. Then I drove by the Adjective Animal again only to realize that it was just a plastic Noun.
