Birthday Bash

In honor of           Your name                     How old you will be on your next birthday           trips around the Sun, please come to the world's best birthday celebration! I have a fantastic day planned. Here's the schedule:

First thing in the morning, a(n)           Something you would love to travel in           will pick you up and bring you to my house, where we've built a(n) blank just for this party. A few special friends, blank and blank, will be joining us for the celebration. And don't forget to bring your appetite! We'll have a special cake made of blank layers of blank cake with blank in between. The cake will be designed by a famous artist in the shape of a(n) blank. Of course we'll have other food too: all the blank you can eat. Afterwards, we'll travel by jet-powered blank to downtown blank, where we will play as much blank and blank as we want. Or you can just blank all afternoon!

I almost forgot - before we leave, blank will lead us all in a special version of "Happy Birthday"! One more thing : of course you don't have to get me a present. But if you insist, here are a couple of ideas: blank or blank to share with everyone. I can't wait to see you!

Your festive friend,
