Kids these days

Let me just say that I love my Granddaughter Proper Noun, to an extent. I honestly cant stand her and those other teenagers with their Common Noun, Common Noun, and those darn Common Noun ! Pronoun just so confusing! I also don't get why they dress in thin cloth! Ever heard of a shirt! Also, those boys walking around with their pants to their ankles. Ugh! their taste in music is extremely weird, Like what kind of a name is whan direction! Kids these days also have no respect for others. Always pranking right under out noses! They "do it for the vine" but who's vine? is it some god they praise. My granddaughter was trying to explain what book face was yesterday, But I didn't get it. Its just people complaining about things, might as well call if complain book, or just skip that and write it in a diary! Kids these days!
