Volunteer Mad Lib

Hello! My name is _____ Proper Noun _____ Proper Noun _____. I am from _____ Proper Noun _____, _____ Proper Noun or _____ subordinating conjunction _____.

I work for the _____ Proper Noun _____ Proper Noun _____ Proper Noun _____ Preposition or subordinating conjunction _____ as a line therapist.

I first heard about becoming a volunteer of the American Red Cross through my internship.

My first experience with the Red Cross was when I took the babysitting course when I was 12.

I decided to become an American Red Cross volunteer in 2014 because I want to get involved in my community.

More specifically, I want to become involved with the Disaster Action Team of the Red Cross.

Besides volunteering, I want to take one of the many classes the Red Cross offers, such as the lifeguarding course.

My goal in volunteering with the Red Cross is to learn about the emotional process people experience during disaster and to experience new things from my community.

I am excited to become a red Cross volunteer because it means that I am helping my community directly.
