Marriage Advice for Joanna and Steve

When I first heard that Joanna and Steve were getting married, I shouted _____Noun_____!

I am _____Adjective_____ _____Preposition or subordinating conjunction_____ for the newlyweds and I wish them a lifetime of _____Coordinating conjunction_____ and _____Preposition or subordinating conjunction_____.

As a motivational _____Pronoun_____, I am uniquely qualified to offer excellent marriage advice on this special occasion.

Steve should always remember to kiss and apologize and never win. I wish him the best of luck with this, because if there is one thing I know about Steve, it is that he is a sore winner.

Joanna should try her best to cook and clean and avoid sleeping at all costs. This may be a struggle for her, because everyone knows that Joanna likes sleeping and snoozing.
