Parts of Speech

Yesterday my [Noun] and I went into town. "Lets [Verb - Base Form] all the way their!" I said. On our way we saw a [Adjective] cow on the side of the road. We hollered but it wouldn't move. So, I called my [Noun] and [Pronoun] said to leave it alone. [Interjection]! That poor cow was all alone. So we ran [Adverb] past the cow. Now that we passed the cow we ran into a dog [Preposition] a cat. "What should we do?" I asked my [Noun]. "Run away [Conjunction] never look back," [Pronoun] said. So we did and slowly but surely we made it to town. We got our treat and never looked back.
