

Christmas at Hogwarts

1. Adjective

Christmas at Hogwarts

Millie was so [_____ Adjective _____] she could hardly contain it - finally, Christmas was here! She wondered if she would get the [noun], [noun], or [noun plural] she'd been hoping for. Christmas was also a time of giving though, and she couldn't wait to [verb] the [noun plural] she made for her friends. Waking up bright and early on Christmas morning, she [verb] out of bed and [verb] downstairs to the common room. Under the [adjective] a Christmas tree in the center of the room, were [number 5 or less] gifts with her name on it. As she [verb] opened the paper! she discovered that the presents were not, in fact, the [noun1], [noun2] or [noun3 plural] that she had wanted, but they contained [noun], [adjective] [noun plural], [noun], [noun plural], and [adjective] [noun]. She felt incredibly [adjective].