My Target English Summer 2015

Date _____

Dear _____,

Wow! I finally arrived for my English language summer holiday. I am both _____ Adjective _____ and _____ Adjective _____ at the same time.

A great holiday includes _____ Verb - Present ends in ING _____ and doing fun _____ Noun - Plural _____. I packed some _____ Noun - Plural _____ into my suitcase in case I need them in the UK. I hope that I meet a lot of new _____ Noun - Plural _____ and learn a lot of English. Maybe I will have _____ and chips for the first time or meet someone special. Of course, I will miss my _____ and family back at home, but with so much to see and do, I will be very busy.
British life and culture has so much to offer. I plan to visit museums, maybe a castle and maybe even London.
The UK has so much history and I want to experience all that I can. It will be an adventure that I will remember for a long time.

I miss you. Would you like a souvenir from the UK? Maybe I will buy you a keychain.

Please say hello to mom and dad from me. See you in a few weeks.

Hugs,

Your name
