

Jacob's (noun 1)

1. Noun
2. Adjective
3. Noun

Jacob's (noun 1)

When Jacob was on his way to (____Noun____), he became very (____Adjective____), and decided to (____Noun____). He found a (noun), put it under his head, and went to sleep. Then he had a strange dream. In his dream, Jacob saw a/an (adjective) (noun 1) stretching all the way up into the sky, with (plural noun) going up and down it. When Jacob awoke, he was so (adjective) that he called the place (name).