

Jacob's (noun 1)

1. Noun
2. Adjective
3. Noun

Jacob's (noun 1)

When Jacob was on his way to (_____ Noun _____), he became very (_____ Adjective _____), and decided to (_____ Noun _____). He found a (noun), put it under his head, and went to sleep. Then he had a strange dream. In his dream, Jacob saw a/an (adjective) (noun 1) stretching all the way up into the sky, with (plural noun) going up and down it. When Jacob awoke, he was so (adjective) that he called the place (name).