That Was Boring

Dear Diary,

Today, I went for a walk in the Location. It was Adjective. So I went inside. That was Adjective. So I knocked out an Adjective man. Now I have a court date. That was boring. Now I'm in jail. That was boring. I got bailed out by my parents. That was Adjective. My mom disowned me. I got sent to a foster home. That was Adjective. New parents adopted me. That was Adjective. I went for a walk in the park. That was Adjective. I knocked out an old man. That was Adjective.
