How to Embrace Being a Leapling, Part 2

Still _____Adverb_____ _____Adjective_____ about the thought of being born on February _____Number_____, such a rare yet _____Adjective_____ day to be born? No problem --- we are not through telling you reasons why you should _____Verb - Base Form_____ your uniqueness!

1. Realize that you're not the only one. Seriously, you're not! Chances of being born on a Leap Day is 1 in 1, _____Number_____. There are just over _____Number_____, 000 leapers in the United States and just under _____Number_____ million worldwide, according to Raenell Dawn, founder of the Honor Society for Leap Year Day _____Noun - Plural_____. Famous celebrities such as _____Celebrity_____, _____Celebrity_____, and more were also born on February 29.

2. It is _____Adjective_____ to get made fun of for being a leapling. Really, talk about _____Noun_____! But you have to realize something --- when a leap year _____Verb - Present ends in S_____, it has absolutely NOTHING at all to do with your age! Sure, it's true that _____Number_____ leap years have gone by, but it doesn't necessarily mean you're _____Number_____ years ago. You ARE _____Number_____! And by the time you ARE " _____Number_____ ", you would actually be _____Number_____ years old. There's a _____Adjective_____ saying that goes, "Don't worry about what others _____Verb - Base Form_____ of you." There's nothing wrong with you as a leapling; you are _____Adjective_____ in that way.

Also, that can be a _____Noun_____. Since in general, there is no _____Number_____ of February, it could be quite hard to _____Verb - Base Form_____ for jobs, _____Verb - Base Form_____ a car, _____Verb - Base Form_____ a school or university, or something like that. I'm sorry to break it to you, but it's just the way our world is. However, that shouldn't _____Verb - Base Form_____ you at all from doing what you wanna do. You could lie by _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ that you were born on the _____Number_____ instead, but I believe it shouldn't really be a problem. It sounds stupid, but these things ARE always bound to happen.

4. When you live to be _____Number_____ someday, you'll actually be _____Number_____ years old. How about that?! That's the _____Adjective_____ part about being a leapling --- you _____Verb - Base Form_____ and _____Verb - Base Form_____ younger than you truly are! Nothing like feeling _____Number_____ when you're in your _____Number_____, huh?

5. As a leapling born on February 29, your star sign is Pisces, the twelfth zodiac sign. As a Pisces born between _____Month_____ _____Number_____ - _____Month_____ _____Number_____, you possess a gentle, patient and malleable nature. You are _____Adjective_____ and _____Adjective_____, and your zodiac symbol is the _____Animal_____. So as you can see, there is nothing wrong with being a leapling if you know your star sign very well!

6. You're one of the oldest kids in class. Yes, you may be _____Verb - Past Tense_____ for being only _____Number_____ or _____Number_____ years old, but studies have shown that kids born in the summer (June - August) or kids born later in the year (September - December) are more likely to be held back than kids born earlier in the year ( January

- April). Although not yet proven to be entirely true, or necessarily true for that matter, you're still the oldest kid in your class. February is an early birthday month, so you should be _____Adjective_____. The other kids will realize that they have no reason at all to _____Verb - Base Form_____ you.

7. There's nothing at all that you can do about it. There HAVE always been leap years ever since the beginning of _____Noun - Plural_____, and there WILL always be many more leap years to come. People are born pretty much every day of every week of every month of every year. It just happens! So if you were born on Leap Day, just deal with it and move on. No one will believe you about your age at first, but eventually, they'll start to catch on and see you as you truly are as a _____Noun_____.
