Adam Sweeney and the Jamboree

Hi you!

Have you heard of Adam Sweeney and the Jamboree? You should have....your _____Relationship_____is in it...

Anyway, they've been busting their _____Body part (plural)_____to create a new album this year and they are so close you can almost _____Verb_____it. They've got big plans for this album including a tour!

Here's the thing, these guys and gals are the _____Superlative_____ and you know it if you've been to any of their shows lately! Now, if you know how _____Verb ending in ing_____; they are, you'll want to have the amazing new album in your own home. You'll want to share the love by helping them head up and down the coast with their jammin.

In order to finish the album and help with tour, a kickstarter fund has been started. There are some pretty awesome perks for donating to the fund, my favorite is the awesome Perk.

Even if you can't donate any money right now, head over to <http://www.kickstarter.com/projects/63459009/adam-sweeney-and-the-jamboree-debut-album-release?ref=live> just to check out the awesome video (my favorite part is the cute Noun and get a taste of their sound.

Also, would you mind passing this on? The kicker of the kickstarter is that no matter how many people pledge, none of the money gets donated until they reach their goal. So, if you want to support this Superlative band and get the perks promised to you, we've got to reach the goal!

Number thanks!

Sarah.
