More stories at WordBlanks.com

How I Discovered I'm Not Musical

1. Number _____
2. Family Member _____
3. Musical Instrument _____
4. Last Name _____
5. Letter Of The Alphabet _____
6. Adjective _____
7. Number _____
8. Musical Instrument _____
9. Plural Body Part _____
10. Adjective _____
11. Adjective _____
12. Female Name _____
13. Song Title _____
14. Artist Of That Song _____
15. Adjective _____
16. Tv Show _____
17. Verb - Present Ends In Ing _____
18. Adverb _____
19. Location _____

How I Discovered I'm Not Musical

When I was little, I always wanted to be a musician. When I turned _____Number_____, my _____family member_____ thought I should take _____musical instrument_____ lessons. My first teacher was Mr. _____last name_____. He fired me because I could never remember where _____letter of the alphabet_____ was on the Repeat Last musical instrument . I was so _____Adjective_____! Then _____Number_____ years later, I decided to try the _____musical instrument_____. I thought it was too hard because my _____plural body part_____ were so _____Adjective_____, and the instrument was so _____Adjective_____! After that, I thought there was no hope in learning an instrument, so I took up singing. My sister _____female name_____ kept telling me to stop when she heard me sing _____song title_____ by _____artist of that song_____. I thought she was just _____Adjective_____, so I auditioned for _____TV show_____ with the same song. All the judges started _____Verb - Present ends in ING_____ _____Adverb_____ and sent me back to _____Location_____. I guess I will never be musical. Oh well.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.