Sonnet Breakdown- On the Sonnet

If by dull Noun - Plural our English must be chain'd,

And, like Andromeda, the Sonnet sweet

Fetter'd, in spite of pained three syllable noun;

Let us find out, if we must be constrain'd,

Sandals more interwoven and rhymes with sweet

To fit the naked foot of teachers name;

Let us inspect the musical instrument, and weigh the stress

Of every chord, and see what may be gain'd

By Part of Body industrious, and attention meet:

Misers of sound and syllable, no less

Than Midas of his coinage, let us verb- present tense

Jealous of dead leaves in the bay wreath crown;

So, if we may not let the Muse be free,

She will be bound with Noun - Plural of her own.
