On The Sonnet

If by Adjective rhymes our English must be Verb - Past Tense,

And, like Mythological Figure, the Poetry Genre sweet

Fetter'd, in spite of pained loveliness;

Let us find out, if we must be Verb - Past Tense,

Sandals more interwoven and complete

To fit the Adjective foot of poesy;

Let us inspect the lyre, and weigh the Noun

Of every Noun, and see what may be gain'd

By ear industrious, and attention meet:

Misers of sound and syllable, no less

Than Proper Noun of his coinage, let us be

Jealous of dead Noun in the bay wreath crown;

So, if we may not let the Muse be free,

She will be bound with Noun of her own.
