On the Sonet

If by dull rhymes our English must be chain'd,

And, like Andromeda, the Sonnet sweet

Fetter'd, in spite of pained loveliness;

Let us find out, if we must be constrain'd,

Sandals more interwoven and complete

To fit the naked foot of _____ A Famous Celebrity _____;

Let us inspect the lyre, and weigh the stress

Of every chord, and see what may be gain'd

By ear industrious, and attention meet:

Misers of sound and syllable, no less

Than Midas of his coinage, let us be

Jealous of dead _____ Plural Noun _____ in the bay wreath crown;

So, if we may not let the _____ noun _____ be _____ something that rhymes with free _____,

She will be bound with garlands of her own.
