Science to Sonnet

Science! true high class symbol of Old Time thou art!

Who alterest all things with thy peering eyes.

Why preyest thou thus upon the poet's heart,

Vulture, whose wings are dull metaphor for wings?

How should he love thee? or how deem thee wise,

Who wouldst not leave him in his wandering

To seek for noun in the jewelled skies,

Albeit he soared with an undaunted wing?

Hast thou not dragged allusion from her Noun,

And driven the allusion from the wood

To seek a shelter in some happier noun that rhymes with stone?

Hast thou not torn the allusion from her flood,

The allusion from the green grass, and from me

The summer dream beneath the tamarind tree?
