Sonnet to Science

Science! true daughter of Old Time thou art!

Who alterest all things with thy peering Part of Body.

Why preyest thou thus upon the poet's noun that rhymes with art,

Bird, whose wings are dull realities?

How should he love thee? or how deem thee wise,

Who wouldst not leave him in his wandering

To seek for treasure in the adjective ending with -ED skies,

Albeit he verb that ends with -ED with an undaunted wing?

Hast thou not dragged Proper Noun from her car,

And driven the Hamadryad from the wood

To seek a shelter in some happier Location?

Hast thou not torn the Naiad from her flood,

The Elfin from the green grass, and from me

The Common noun dream beneath the tamarind tree?
