On the Sonnet by Mark and Michael

If by dull rhymes our foreign language must be chain'd,

And, like Andromeda, the poetry genre sweet

Fetter'd, in spite of pained loveliness

Let us find out, if we must be constrain'd, type of shoe more interwoven and complete

To fit the naked body part of poesy;

Let us inspect the instrument, and weigh the stress

Of every chord, and see what may be gain'd

By ear industrious, and attention meet:

Misers of sound and syllable, no rhyme with less

Than Proper Noun of his coinage, let us be

Jealous of dead leaves in the bay wreath off rhyme with crown;

So, if we may not let the greek mythology character be free,

Proper Noun will be bound with garlands of pro noun own.
