Thanksgiving vs. Party

On the night of Thanksgiving, Friend Name at school says that his the Friend Last Name family is have a party with strobe lights and karaoke. I ask "But what about the Thanksgiving Dinner." Gender of Friend said "Don't Even try." Then you show your mom and dad the invention. They yelled on the Tuesday morning "Your Name!!! GET DOWN HERE NOW!!!" I rammed down and they said this "Do you know what day that is Your Name" I said "It's an invention to party from my friend." Mom said "Yeah, On Thanksgiving." I said "oh?" When I went to school, the first person that came up to me was Friend Name, and Gender of Friend said "You coming to that party?" I declined. Gender of Friend asked "Why, Thanksgiving is a poor old holiday like Halloween." I told Him Or Her "Your not my friend, I will be eating with my family." So, this was so far, the best Thanksgiving of my childhood. I ate to much turkey, so I was tired and fell sleep. That was my Thanksgiving fun. The End.
