The Story of Rodazon and Brendan

Our first contact came through a message from me on one kind of Social Media I know! Totally random and lame even to ourselves at first. I was having a week vacation here in Japan then I ended up staying here for months. I was planning to enroll at the Proper Noun Adjective Center but I couldn't find something that can fit in my schedule.
Suddenly, one of the Japan pages popped up on my screen and Brendan was the last person who that page, so I clicked his Facebook and him. I asked if he knew of a tutorial center that only requires an hour or for a week. He replied and that's how everything started.
Both of us are not the type to email people we didn't know (except for that moment since I need to know something) I'm not the type to increase my circle of by searching them on FB, but there was something about him and he was so that I couldn't erase his messages. We corresponded for about months and then actually verb - Past Tense at Yume Town with my sister and her husband. I am the youngest so they are pretty We've been together ever since!
We really both love to We both love the Stone Curry restaurant if we are here in Beppu.
Back in the Philippines, we are both addicted to Jecks restaurant, where we get the special tamarind candy. We both enjoy activities like bikes, Verb - Present ends in ING, playing soccer, Verb - Present ends in ING, and Verb - Present ends in ING movies.

It wasn't easy at first because after my months staying here in Japan, my job and visa application in UK was materialized so I had to move there and we had a long distance relationship. We both went back last March to the Philippines for him to meet my sisters and also to have the What people do when they are in love . He took me for a Number day vacation on an island. It wa in the crater of a volcano in a lake that on an island called Noun - Beautiful Place. It was CRAZY! Little did know a surprise proposal was underway. I was oblivious to what was about to happen.
Unfortunately, I got an allergic reaction that brought a rash to my entire me on the, hugged me, and put a on my finger. Him and his family are always romantic so it's not unusual to receive something from them.
History, a few days before we went to ne gave me a from his sister Female name of Latin Origin so when I was about to ask from whom the same noun came from, he put his again on my face and asked me to marry him. He told me that he loves every single rash that existed on my I was super delighted soaking it all that I forgot to say "

!" That moment I instantly started verb - Present ends in ING He asked me again to be his wife and I said yes!
! It was amazing. It was the happiest moment ever! I forgot all the rashes around!
After that about reaction it were it according to the second bins. After may continue to Large year with may be at decision Large.
After that short vacation, it wasn't easy without him. After my contract, I came up with my best decision I ever had, to here to Japan to be with him. I knew I could find a job anywhere, but I could not find true love anywhere else, and he is the source of my happiness.
