Frosty the Snowman

Frosty the Snowman was a jolly Adjective soul with a Adjective pipe and a Adjective nose and two eyes made out of Noun.

Frosty the Snowman is a Noun they say. He was made of Noun but the Noun - Plural know how he came to life one day

There must have been some Noun in that old Adjective hat they found. For when they placed it on his Part of Body he began to Verb - Base Form around.

Frosty the Snowman was alive as he could be. And the Noun - Plural say he could Verb - Base Form and Verb - Base Form just the same as you and me.

Frosty the Snowman knew the Noun was Adjective that day So he said, "Let's run and we'll have some Verb - Base Form now before I Verb - Base Form away." Down to the village with a Noun in his hand Verb - Present ends in ING here and there all around the square saying "Catch me if Exclamation can." He led them down the Noun of town right to the Adjective cop and he only paused a moment when he heard him holler "Stop!"

Frosty

the Snowman had to hurry on his way, but he waved goodbye saying "Don't you cry, I'll be back again some day
