More stories at WordBlanks.com

Week 10 Vocabualry

1. Vocab Word _____
2. Vocab Word _____
3. Vocab Word _____
4. Vocab Word _____
5. Vocab Word _____
6. Vocab Word _____
7. Vocab Word _____
8. Vocab Word _____
9. Vocab Word _____
10. Vocab Word _____

Week 10 Vocabualry

This _____Vocab Word_____ tale goes back to my great-great-great grandfather's _____Vocab Word_____. It is a tale about a great _____Vocab Word_____. The woman in this tale was a great hero. She saved many people on the _____Vocab Word_____ to the new world. Without her medicinal skills, many would have perished during their _____Vocab Word_____ to their new life. The story was told on the _____Vocab Word_____ of the navigator's log, in tiny writing. It took many years to understand what it said, but here is the tale, as it was written.

The ship had set a fast _____Vocab Word_____, and was set to arrive early in the spring. It would be the best time of year to arrive, and start our new village. The weather was fine, and the passengers had not fallen ill at all. The journey was as grand as it could be-almost easy.The captain was very _____Vocab Word_____, and would not allow his crew to fall slack at any time. We were close to the day of arrival. The shore was within the _____Vocab Word_____ of a week's worth of travel. All was well.

And then the sickness began. It began with a _____Vocab Word_____ in the back of a young sailor.

©2026 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.