My birthday was _____ Noun and I finally turned _____ Number years old. It was supposed to be a _____ Adjective day. I was supposed to _____ Verb my presence in this world. Initially, I thought it was going to be _____ Adjective. I felt great conviction that it would be a _____ Adjective day. However, the day turned idle as my _____ Noun - Plural forgot. Deferments seemed to be the only resort when it came to birthdays.

My _____ Noun - Plural felt as if birthdays were _____ Verb - Present Tense a year closer to death than a year past living a _____ Adjective and _____ Adjective life. I felt as if the concept of birthdays had been eviscerated. I went to _____ Noun and was bombarded with my _____ Noun - Plural saying "Happy Birthday!". Although, I craved attention at home, I hated receiving attention at _____ Noun. I did not know what to say or how to respond when _____ Noun sang to me. Throughout the day, I blushed and brushed away many birthday greetings. The day finally ceased when I came _____ Noun and fell _____ Adverb. I then realized that birthdays should not be on the amount of _____ Noun you receive but the celebration of _____ Verb - Present Tense and contributing to the _____ Noun.
