The Journey to the Top of the Mountain

A long time ago, there was a girl named Mary who wanted to climb a mountain. One day she took a walk in the forest. When she was walking, she saw a mountain! When she saw the mountain she quickly went home to get her backpack. Then she went back into the forest and walked up to the mountain. She did not climb it yet, of course! So then she set up her camp Adjective she wanted to wait till the next day.

So when it was morning she tried to climb the mountain, she fell! Then her parents looked for her everywhere.

Then, they found her!
